

RECORD CROWD EXPECTED FOR BIG RACE MEET

First Race Event Will Begin at 2 o'clock; Maui Poloists to Meet Kauai Team at 4

With perfect weather on tap today, and added to this a program of sports which has not been equalled in any one half day, the Hawaii Polo and Racing Association committee feel confident that there will be a record crowd out to the big race meet this afternoon.

Beginning at 2 o'clock, feature events will continue all afternoon until the last chuckur in the polo match. It is, in reality, the case of the first will be last and the last will be first. Those who will be detained at their work until 2 o'clock will have an opportunity of witnessing a number of the races, as the harness event will be called first at 2 o'clock.

Elora in First Race
In this race Elora appears to have the edge, with Denervo second. The Hilo entry will be driven by McDonough, and this means close to a 2:15 heat. Whether or not Denervo can make up the distance of the handicap is a question, but the Paxon entry is exceptionally fast, and ought to make a great race of it.

Satisfax ought to win in the third race of the day, and many horsemen believe that the daughter of Rock Sand will set a new record for the six furlongs.

Watch Copra
In the seventh race, a four furlong event, Satisfax is again entered, and is always good for a chance to win. She will have a good jockey in Carroll, but the race is short and Copra's speed may beat the Schofield mare to the wire. It would appear that Copra has an excellent chance in this event, and Benny Rollins is certain to give the Fitzgerald entry a good ride. Copra has the rail, carrying 116 pounds, and with an even break at the start should win out.

Hundreds of racing followers witnessed their first game of polo last Monday, and when the ball is thrown in at the opening of the game, there should be a large crowd on hand. Kauai will use the same four seen in action last year with the exception of Jay Gould, who has been replaced by Philip Rice. Maui also has three men in the lineup from last year's team, Sam Baldwin taking Dave Fleming's place.

Malina to Play
The Kauai poloists will ride the Oahu ponies, and this may mean 10% loss to that aggregation, but they are certain to make this up in horsemanship and sparkling plays. Johnny Malina is acknowledged to be one of the longest hitters in the game, and his playing has always made a big hit with the crowds in the stand.

Acting with the racing committee, President Sam Nott and Manager Billy Miles of the Pacific League have postponed the two games which were to have been played at Mollili Field this afternoon. These games will be played off later in the series. Many stores have also been booked for closing at noon, and Governor Pinkham has requested that the afternoon be declared a half holiday.

Maui Poloists Who Defeated Oahu Team On Monday

Maui should be the favorite in the final polo match of the month this afternoon at Kapiolani Field. Kauai will have a strong team and should put up a harder fight against Maui than Oahu did, but Kauai will be handicapped somewhat on account of riding strange ponies. Edwin Baldwin will not play, but Sam Baldwin is a sterling player and should work well with the other Mauians. The players, from left to right, are Harold Rice, Edward Baldwin, Frank Baldwin and Arthur Collins.

HAWAIIIS STAGE BENEFIT DANCE THIS EVENING

Members of the Hawaii baseball team of the Pacific League will hold a concert and dance at the Phoenix hall this evening. The funds will be used to purchase uniforms for the players. The concert will begin at 7:30, and the dance will be on at 8:30. The Hawaii team have taken a deep interest in baseball and are lining up a strong team of amateurs. For the occasion they have secured excellent music, as the Hawaii Quintet Club will furnish the airs for the dances. It is expected that there will be a large crowd out as the Hawaii players have been popular with the fans throughout the season. Frank Kalua, the manager, has extended an invitation to all the fair sex to be present, as there will be no charge for the ladies.

MAUI RACE MEET TO BE 'CLASSY'

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
HAWAII, June 15.—Unless the anthrax epidemic should spread, which is not expected, it will have no effect on the Fourth of July race meeting at Kahului. This is authoritative, stated by Dr. Fitzgerald, territorial veterinarian for Maui.

Moreover the prospects at present are that the first meeting to be held under the auspices of the new Maui County Fair and Racing association will be the best in the long history of Maui racing.

Besides the local horses the race committee has now been virtually assured that two of the best strings of Honolulu owned racers will be here—the Shingle horses and Dillingham string. Besides this there is strong likelihood that Satisfax and a number of others of the best army horses will also come.

There is also a likelihood that Denervo, formerly a Maui horse, but now owned by S. S. Paxon, will again be back on Maui, provided Welcome Boy or some other qualified harness animal can be secured.

Hilo will feature the big regatta, three races between the Healanis, Myrtles and Hilo crews being booked for the morning of the celebration. In addition to this parade, baseball, field sports and a grand ball will be listed. Excursionists will have an excellent opportunity to visit the Vol-
